Don's Bio:

I was born in Alabama and was blessed to have Christian parents. I was very active in church and became a Christian at a young age. After graduating from college I moved to Atlanta where I met my wonderful wife. We started a family and my relationship with Christ continued to grow. We moved to Birmingham and lived there for 15 years. I was transferred to Fort Worth approximately 15 years ago. We have two sons, a daughter, a daughter-in-love and a son-in-love. If you have time to listen, ask me about our three granddaughters. God led us to Center Point Church approximately 12 years ago. After many years in the cement and lime business in which God had truly blessed us, I felt called to help Jay as he leads us to achieve the vision and mission God has given him for CPC.
