A Million Dreams Luke 1:5-25

But the angel said, “Don’t be afraid, Zechariah! God has heard your prayer. Your wife, Elizabeth, will give you a son, and you are to name him John. You will have great joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth. for he will be great in the eyes of the Lord... Luke 1:13-15 (NLT)

Even when God is silent, He is still working for our good.

And we know in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose, this includes you.
Romans 8:28 (NIV)

God always keeps His promises.

...“I will pour out my Spirit upon all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy. Your old men will dream dreams, and your young men will see visions. In those days I will pour out my Spirit even on servants—men and women alike.” Joel 2:28-29 (NLT)

How to Dream Again

Trust that God is faithful.

Understand, therefore, that the Lord your God is indeed God. He is the faithful God who keeps his covenant for a thousand generations and lavishes his unfailing love on those who love him and obey his commands.

Deuteronomy 7:9 (NLT)

Live a life of faithfulness.

But you must remain faithful to the things you have been taught. You know they are true, for you know you can trust those who taught you.

2 Timothy 3:14 (NLT)

Never give up hope.

Let us hold tightly without wavering to the hope we affirm, for God can be trusted to keep his promise. Hebrews 10:23 (NLT)

Going Deeper on Your Own: This week take time to memorize Hebrews 10:23 and take time daily to meditate on the truth that God is a promise keeper. Realize that God's timing is always perfect. So, don't give up hope and begin to dream again. Ask God to help you see the possibilities that He has for you. Share your dreams with someone you trust and allow them to help you begin to take steps to live out your dreams.
